Miss Hazen Weds Martin R. Bourne at St. Mark's Church

Miss Bessie Mae Hazen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. P. C. Hazen, and Martin R. Bourne were married last evening at 8 o'clock in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, the Rev. W. L. DeVries officiating.

A profusion of palms and white spring flowers formed the decorations both at the church and in the home, where the reception following the ceremony was held. Dr. Hazen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Miss Hazen's bridal costume was a handsome gown of Duchesse satin, made princess, and trimmed with seed pearls and Duchesse lace. Her tulle veil fell to the hem of her train and was arranged on her hair with a coronet of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Katherine Hazen, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her gown was a becoming toilette of pale pink silk and in her hair she wore a dainty coronet of tiny pink roses.

Miss Annie Blumer, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Eliza Sweet were the bridesmaids. Miss Blumer wore a dainty frock of pale yellow silk, and Miss Sweet's gown was of pale blue silk. Like the maid of honor, they also wore coronets of roses.

W. W. Floharty acted as best man, and the ushers were A. A. Liscomb, Philip Arth, Marvin Towne, Francis C. Evans, William T. Jones, and Chester A. Shannon.

After the ceremony at the church the bridal party received with Mrs. Hazen, mother of the bride, in their home on East Capitol street. Mrs. Hazen wore a becoming gown of lavender crepe de chine.

Among those who attended the reception were Secretary and Mrs. Cortelyou, Senator and Mrs. Nelson, Senator and Mrs. Stone, and Miss Stone, Representative Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. De Graw, Representative and Mrs. Tawney, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wickert, Mr. and Mrs. James Courts, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crosthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Smith, Mrs. Mary Wood, Towne, George E. Garrett, the Rev. W. L. DeVries, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Rhea, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hazen, Commissioner George M. Bowers, the Rev. and Mrs. Albert Evans, Dr. Henry Hazen, Mrs. E. Hazen, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Laughlin, Mr. Matthew Laughlin, Miss McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Phearty, O. H. George, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curran, Edwin Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Hart.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Bourne left Washington for an extended trip. They will sail March 10 on the handsome tailored costume of dark blue broadcloth and a becoming blue hat.

They will go first to San Francisco, from there they will sail March 10 on the Siberia for the Philippines via Honolulu, China, and Japan. Mr. Bourne has been connected with the Government service in the Philippines for a number of years and has been in this country since October on a leave of absence.

Mrs. Wheeler Receives.

Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Representative Wheeler, and Miss Wheeler, will receive today from 4 to 6 o'clock at the New Willard. They will be assisted by Mrs. F. Carl Smith, Mrs. E. B. Grandin, Miss McCoy, Miss Rees, Miss Parker, and Miss Libbey.

Mrs. Heaton entertained at a bridge party yesterday in her home on Nineteenth street.

The Duchess Marlborough is due to arrive in New York Saturday, on the Lucania. She will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, during the most of her stay here.

Gerry-Harriman Wedding.

A notable wedding took place in New York at noon today, when Miss Cornelia Harriman, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harriman, became the bride of Robert Livingston Gerry, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at 12:30 o'clock, in the home of the bride's parents.

Bishop Doane, of Albany, the Rev. Dr. Huntington, of Grace Church, and the Rev. Mr. McGuinness, of St. John's Church, at Arden, where the Harrimans have their permanent home, were the officiating clergymen.

The church was beautifully decorated with peach and almond blossoms and greens.

E. H. Harriman gave his daughter in marriage to Miss Mary Harriman was the maid of honor for her sister. The six bridesmaids were Miss Carol A. Harriman, Miss Marian H. Clark, Miss Ruth Ayerell, Miss Margaret Dix, Miss Elsie Howland, and Miss Anita Peabody.

Peter Goelet Gerry was the best man for his brother, and the ushers were Robert W. Goelet, Frederick Kernochan, Monson Morris, Averell Harriman, William Stockpole, Bradish G. Johnson, John S. Ames, and Aaron Davis.

Mr. Gerry will take his bride for an European bridal trip.

Millinery "Opening" Souvenirs

Are Complimentary Prices

While the "Opening" here is an exhibit—so good a one that a visitor suggested we should make a charge for admission—a most important sale is included. We would do more than create an impression of a beautiful display—we would have great numbers demonstrate that Palais Royal Hats are becoming to the wearers. And thus we are asking complimentary prices—advertising through the medium of our visitors rather than the newspapers. Such advertising costs considerably in profits, but will bring great returns later.
